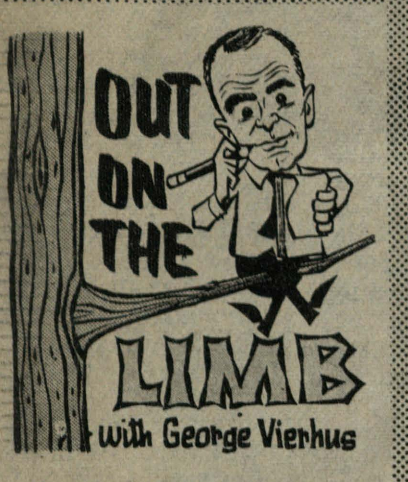
Vol. 73 No. 1 378-9136 Wednesday, January 6, 1965



NOW THAT 1965 is started, although we still persist in writing 1964, we should probably make some forecasts in this first column of the new year.

But the only ones we would make would be the obvious ones and you don't need a newspaperman to do that for you.

However, we like to think with some basis that a newspaper does quite often play a fair-sized role in the successful culmination of worthwhile objectives.

This calls to mind that during our tour of duty in Temple City, Joe Anello, who was at the helm here, constantly plugged for the widening and improvement of the intersection at Winchester and Camden.

Joe's persistent campaign in this field has been credited by many as the greatest single factor in getting the present "new look" for that confused intersection.

One city employee even suggested facetiously that the widened portion of the road should be called the "Campbell Press Expressway".

WE HAVE long been convinced that a newspaper has a definite responsibility in its watchdog role not only to boost and boast but also to push and pull for community betterment.

A suggestion in this column some months ago that the city hall should have a flag pole and flag gained the wholehearted approval of the city council.

The newly-organized Junior Chamber of Commerce has presented the city with a suitable pole. Soon it will be in place.

Any bows that we might take for this project, however, have to be pretty creaky... We only waited nine years to make the suggestion.

In all fairness it must be admitted that the flag pole at the adjoining fire station had been considered actually as part of the city hall complex all these years.

But we don't think a flag on the city hall is overdoing it, even if it took us nine years to make up our mind.

TWO FORMER PUBLISHERS of newspapers and good friends of ours dropped off a couple notes to us recently.

Ralph H. Turner, now retired in Corona Del Mar, was particularly pleased over our now famous 'Tis the season to be jolly' picture of Jeffrey and Scott Lamson in our Christmas issue. (Both boys were distinctly 'unjolly' while sitting on Santa's lap.)

Ralph wrote: "George-The feature 'Tis the season to be jolly' in your issue of Dec 23 is one of the best I've ever seen. Be sure to enter it in all contests for Best

City loses final plea to open Rincon-Latimer

Rincon and Latimer avenues will be blocked off when the San Tomas Expressway is built through Campbell. That appeared inevitable this week in face of the action taken by the Board of Supervisors.

Campbell struck out completely on Monday in making the final plea to have Rincon and Latimer unblocked.

Campbell's case was presented by Mayor Charles Rose. The mayor was supported at the meeting by Councilmen Ralph Doetsch and Bob McElroy, City Manager Bob Stephens and Ted Regas, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce highway committee.

But Campbell's appeal was to no avail. The board was adamant and unanimously denied it.

The supervisors by their action Monday upheld the ruling of the County Trafficways Committee which had denied Campbell's request to allow Rincon and Latimer to cross the expressway.

But the meeting Monday was anti-climatic. The board didn't even have to vote on the issue. That had already been done the week before.

Actually the supervisors at that meeting had taken the official action upholding the decision of the Trafficways Committee.

But Campbell had not been notified that the matter was going to be on the board's agenda for the previous meet-

Jim Pluth heads local Jaycees

Jim Pluth will head the newly-organized Campbell Junior Chamber of Commerce until July 1965. Installation ceremonies for Pluth and his fellow officers were held just prior to the Christmas holidays.

Taking office with the new president were Al Hansen, state director; Don King, vice-president; Jerry Duncan, secretary; Alan Murray, treasurer and Bob Dalzell and Verl Weitzel, directors.

At the installation program, Al Hansen was the master of ceremonies and Bill Temple, district governor for the Jaycees was guest speaker and installing officer.

Neil Huwatschek was in charge of arrangements for the affair.

Campbell family loses farm to flood waters

Torrential rains which flooded the Eel River in northern California played havoc with 28 acres of farm land owned by a Campbell couple, Mr. and Mrs. C.M. Clever of 848 Kenneth Avenue.

The Clever's recently purchased the property in the little town of Pepperwood, near Scotia, California and had planned to open a camp and trailer site area there next summer.

A telephone line was finally opened in Scotia at the Georgia-Pacific Lumber Company and the Clevers heard from their caretaker, Robert Hacki, that the house, garage, barn, pump house, poultry, and farm animals were all swept away in the flood.

Six cows were turned loose by Hacki who headed them to the hills and hoped they would survive.

Pepperwood, which is a farming community, has a population of approximately 350. There is a small school, post office, several stores and gas

DOGS ON TV

Dogs from this area will star on nationwide television, Sunday, January 10, on the Candid Camera show.

The TV show recently filmed the antics of the canines during the Santa Clara Dog Training activities at the county fair grounds. The film company shot pictures for eight hours. But the local dogs will appear for a total of two minutes on the TV screen. Among the TV stars will be "Chris" owned by Mr. and Mrs. James Crough, of 758 W. Rincon.

Craig Morton - Jack Schraub

Campbell honors famous grid 'mudders' January 21

Campbell's famous touchdown twins, Craig Morton and Jack Schraub, who slid to new fame in a sea of mud before a nationwide TV audience in the East-West game last Saturday, will be honored at a civic banquet on Thursday, January 21.

The event will be held in the Campbell High cafeteria. The affair is jointly sponsored by Campbell High, the City of Campbell and the Chamber of Commerce.

Tickets, costing $2 per person, went on sale this week. They may be purchased at either the high school or at the C. of C. office

The two grid stars began tossing a football to each other when they were in grade school here. They went on to star together at Campbell High and then to do the same at the University of California where Schraub set pass-catching records and Morton, the tosser, became an All-American.

Both stars have been signed to professional football contracts by Dallas.

But nothing they had done previously or will do in the future on the gridiron compared to the experience they had last Saturday in duck pond in Kezar Stadium in San Francisco.

With the East leading by a 7-4 score and only a minute or so to go in the ball game, Craig tossed the ball five yards to Jack who sloshed, fell, slid or swam across the goal line for a TD and the game.

The civic banquet for the two gridders was planned before the East-West game but the community event now takes on even greater impetus, if for nothing else but to repeat the headline in the S. F. Chronicle; "West's Campbell Kids (Morton and Schraub) Beat East 11-7."

COUNCIL TO MEET

Campbell's City Council will meet for the first time in 1965 next Monday, January 11, the regular meeting date. The Council meets on the second and fourth Mondays each month.

Council members, along with members of the Park Commission and the Planning Commission met in a study session Monday night to discuss park projects for the city.

Campbell grad loses life in Viet Nam plane

The death of Army Warrant Officer Stephen E. Morgan, 20, a helicopter pilot, reported missing in action in Viet Nam, has been confirmed by the Pentagon according to his family in this area. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Morgan, of 4357 Hilton Avenue, San Jose, and a 1961 graduate of Campbell High School.

Morgan is Santa Clara County's first serviceman to be killed in action in Viet Nam. At Campbell High School Morgan won his letter in tennis and school administrators said he was a good student and earned high grades. He also attended Foothill College for one year.

According to the Pentagon, an Army helicopter carrying Morgan and three other U.S. military advisors was hit by small arms fire from the ground during the bloody battle for Binh Gia about 40 miles east of Saigon. The craft was said to have crashed in flames and exploded on impact. Announcement of services is pending until the Army returns the youth for burial at Golden Gate National Cemetery, San Bruno.

RAIN DROPS!!

New Year's Day gets the distinction of being the only day since December 18 when no rain has been recorded, according to the Campbell Water Co. gauge. The season's rainfall as of Tuesday a.m. now totals 9.97 inches.

During the past week 1.29 inches have fallen. Last year at this time 5.09 inches were recorded and the total for the season is 11.08 inches.

City adds two firemen

Effective on January 1, the Campbell Fire Department added two firemen to bring the total personnel to 21 firefighters and a secretary.

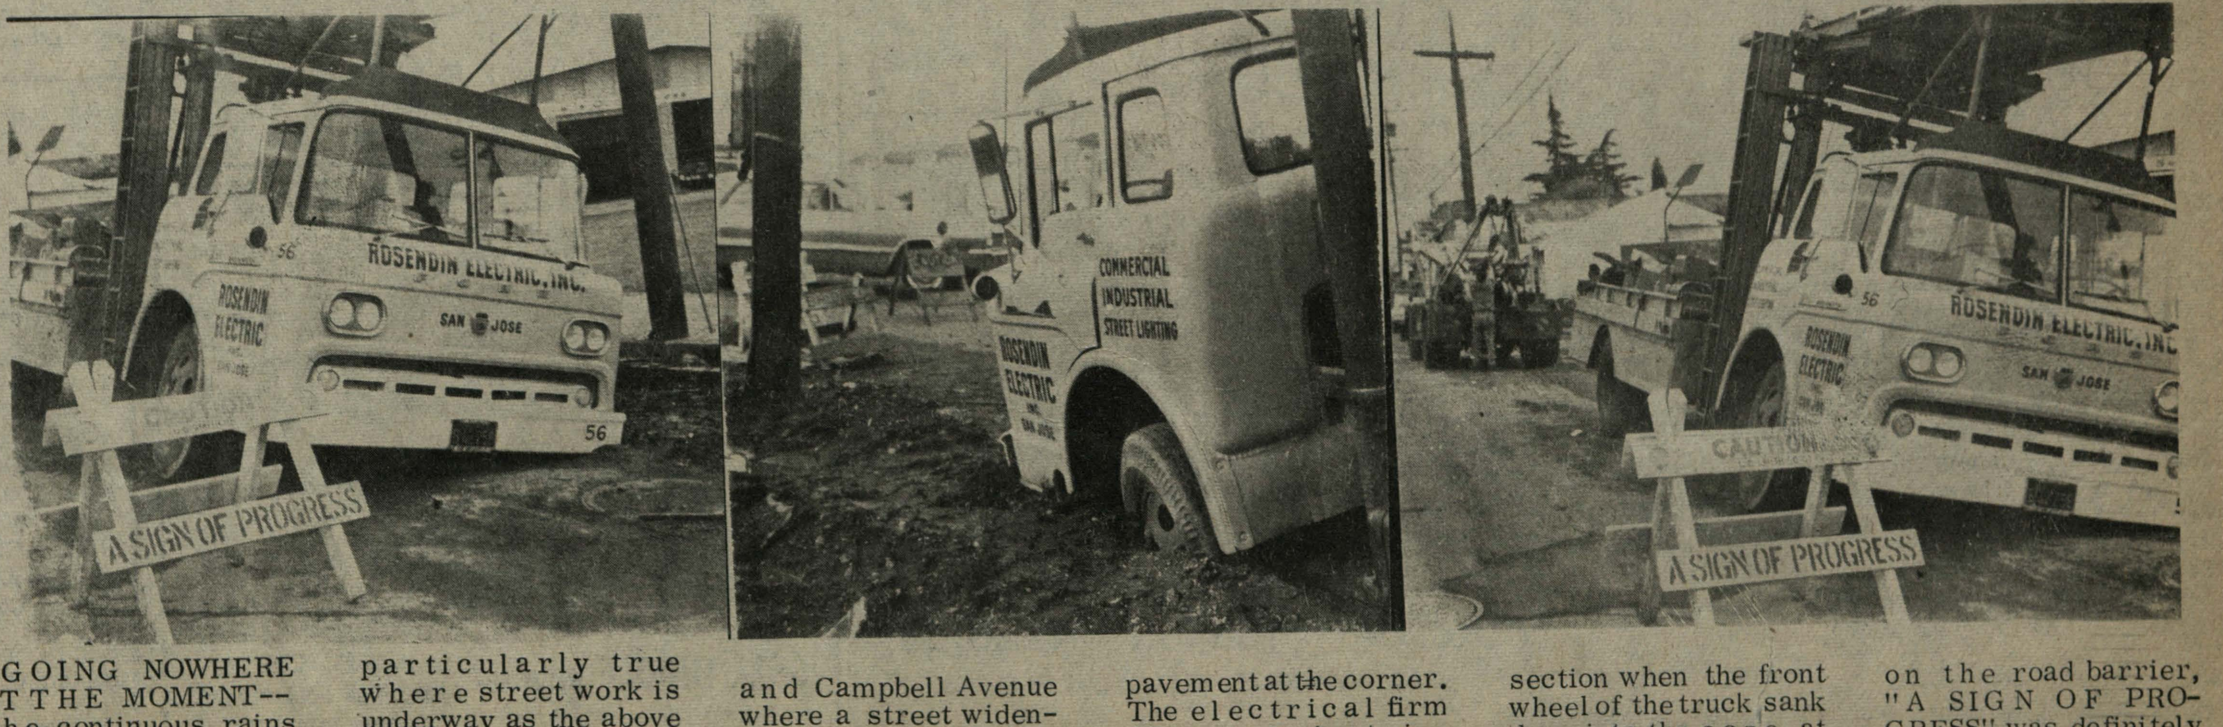
Named as firemen after extensive competitive examinations were Gerald Eller, 28, of LaSelva Beach, California and Darryl Mincer, 23, of Mt. Herman, California. The starting salary for Campbell firemen is $541 per month.

Eller is married and has one child. He previously was employed as a forest fire truck driver in San Mateo County. He was born in San Diego and has a B.S. in forest management from Humboldt State College.

Mincer is also married and was born in Shenandoah, Iowa. He was previously employed as a telephone repairman in San Jose. He has an A.A. degree from Fullerton Junior College and he also attended Cabrillo College.

The local department mans two stations, one on N. Central and the other on Sunnyoaks.

Under Fire Chief George Maxwell, the department consists of a fire marshal, five captains, five engineers and nine firemen and a full time secretary.



GOING NOWHERE AT THE MOMENT-- The continuous rains of the past weeks have caused firm soil to turn into soggy messes in many areas but this is particularly true where street work is underway as the above photos will testify. A truck from Rosendin Electric bogged 'way down at Winchester and Campbell Avenue where a street widening project is underway and where the wet weather had prevented the installation of new pavement at the corner. The electrical firm was preparing to install a new electrical sign at the service station at the intersection when the front wheel of the truck sank deep into the ooze at the curb. The truck had to be extricated by a tow rig. The [illegible] on the road barrier, "A SIGN OF PROGRESS" was definitely not referring to the truck's predicament at the particular time.

City manager reports

In the final meeting of the Campbell City Council on Monday, December 28, City Manager Robert Stephens presented a progress report for the year that was closing and gave a forecast of what was in store for the city in 1965.

Because we feel this report is of interest to the citizens of this community, we are publishing it in full as it was presented:

INTRODUCTION

At this last regular meeting of 1964, it seems appropriate to report on the major City projects which were completed in 1964; those initiated and still pending; and those major policy decisions resulting in some action which may be initiated or completed in 1965.

As these projects are listed we realize that the City of Campbell, through its City Council, citizens and organizations is progressing towards making the City a better place to live, work and play.

ADMINISTRATION: Adoption of a Boundary Agreement - City of San Jose: Adoption of a Council Policy Manual: Establishment of a Central Cashiering System in City Clerk's Office.

FORECAST 1965:

The following policy decisions will no doubt be considered as top priority by the City Council during 1965. We would hope that new major projects and programs will result from these major policy decisions. These decisions are listed as follows:

1. Major policy decision relating to planning of City - land use and zoning of undeveloped land and the redevelopment of older areas in the City of Campbell.

2. Completion of studies, and policy decision relating to the City's capital Improvements program.

Major decisions will be made as to what capital improvements are needed, their estimated cost, and how best the City can finance these improvements. These improvements will no doubt relate to the City's need for public building facilities, parks and major streets.

3. The establishment of a street maintenance program for major and minor streets in the City.

4. Continuing efforts by the City, and various Civic and Service organizations in the development and beautification of Los Gatos Creek area lying within City limits.

5. A closer working relationship with the City's School Districts and the Junior College on the provision of public recreational services.

6. Continuing stress by the City on its enforcement program relating to unsafe and non-conforming use, housing and building within the City.

Respectfully submitted,
Robert C. Stephens,
City Manager

The other note came from Lester Lafferty, whom some of you remember as a former publisher of this paper.

Les, now retired in Santa Cruz, with his wife, Gladys, went to Rogue River, Oregon, to be with relatives over the holidays. You all know what was happening up there about that time.

Les wrote: "Hi-Arrived just in time to witness floods in Rogue River Valley. We are high and safe but saw many homes washed away--Covered bridge one mile upstream from Don's was washed away.

"Flight bumpy near Shasta-otherwise smooth. Hope you have a happy holiday. We see many tragic affairs here so we should be thankful for being spared..."

Later, Les dropped us another note with a clipping from The Oregonian describing some of the flood situations. . He added--"3-inch snowfall here today--Beautiful among trees and hills. All our people escaped floods. Damage was to homes on river banks."

THERE WERE SOME complaints locally about the persistent showers that plagued our own area for the two weeks prior to the end of the year.

Some compared our rain to bad plumbing. . a washer had been lost in the faucet...

Others remarked that they didn't know when they left home whether they would need sunglasses or a raincoat. . There were times when both were needed.

But the complaints were not very loud. . In face of what had taken place in the northern part of the state and in Oregon and Idaho, these complaints didn't carry much water.

"CHECKERS", our boxer dog, went with us to Fresno for the Christmas holidays.

But she almost didn't come back with us, through no fault of her own.

The kennel manager, where "Checkers" stayed, brought out a friendly boxer dog that agreeably climbed into the car with us. She seemed quite contented.

A second look, however, convinced us that there had been a dog-gone mistake.

The dog wasn't "Checkers" but one that looked enough like her to be her twin.

We didn't have the heart to tell "Checkers" what had happened.

Her nose would really be out of joint, if we did.

Water district, Council to talk

Campbell City Council members and the directors of Santa Clara Valley Water Conservation District are holding a joint meeting at 2 p.m. today (Wednesday) to discuss mutual problems affecting land on Los Gatos Creek.

The conference is a result of actions taken by both bodies affecting a 10-acre parcel on the creek. The water people have a price tag of $275,000 on the land which the city wants retained for parks but is not willing or able to pay the asking price. The city has threatened to rezone the property.

Both sides have agreed to hold up further action until they have discussed the entire matter around a conference table.

Board names Sig Sanchez new chairman

According to Mrs. Clever, all the bridges are out, and the lumber company in Scotia is offering its machinery and services to get the roads cleared. Clever flew to Scotia Monday to look the situation over and to see if he can reclaim any of the farm machinery.

Another local man, Bev Arntzen, who recently sold his Auto Parts Business at 566 E. Campbell Ave., to Paul Del Grande, reported that there was major flood damage to his Rogue River Resort. He said there was eight feet of water in the lodge and five feet of water in the house. He also lost several boats. Arntzen indicated he planned to repair the damage and have his lodge ready for business in time for the fishing and hunting season.

ing and was not represented.

So the issue was discussed again on Monday because of the written request by the City of Campbell to be heard.

The board heard Campbell.

Then filed the letter.

Mayor Rose and Regas contended before the supervisors that the closing off of Rincon and Latimer would be detrimental to the economic health of the community. Rose also emphasized that more east-west thoroughfares were needed to relieve the traffic flow of the north-south roads. He added that the Camden interchange was now in poor condition because of the heavy traffic and it would be even worse when the expressway traffic was dumped into it.

The Trafficways Committee case was presented by James Pott, county public works director. He maintained that it was "policy" to hold the number of grade crossings to a minimum. He also pointed out that a previous Campbell City Council had approved the Expressway agreement that called for the two streets to be closed off.

CHURCH IMPROVEMENTS--The First Baptist Church of Campbell located at 400 Llewellyn recently completed a new one-story educational building (top photo) designed and equipped to accomodate 250 juniors and intermediates. The $50,000 facility is the largest building constructed to date by the church and is the third phase of a master plan to accomodate 1000 persons, according to the Rev. Harry M. Liechty, Jr., pastor. A parking lot to accomodate 100 extra cars has also been completed (lower photo). The church offices were relocated and redesigned in another building which had been added in November, 1963. Remodeling of the older buildings of the church plant is also underway.

PG & E plans $275 million expansion program in 1965

Pacific Gas and Electric Company President Robert H. Gerdes has announced the largest construction expenditure for a single year in PG&E history, an estimated $275 million to be invested in new facilities in 1965.

The expenditure will have a substantial effect on the business activity of Northern and Central California next year, Gerdes said. In employment it will supply an average 7,600 construction jobs every working day of the year. Payrolls and purchases of materials and equipment will stimulate local trade. The investment in new plants, power lines, substations, gas pipe lines and related facilities also will enlarge the tax base for support of local government and schools in many localities.

"This expansion reflects the magnitude of the continuing annual growth of PG&E's service area in population, industry, agriculture and trade," Gerdes said. "The new facilities will provide increased supplies of gas and electric energy to take care of the growing needs of our customers."

Major power installations totalling 2,112,500 kilowatts are under construction. Of this total, 540,000 kilowatts will be placed in service by the end of 1965.

RESOURCES

The Company's power resources also will be increased by 337,200 kilowatts to be produced at water conservation projects under construction by the Nevada Irrigation District, the Placer County Water Agency and the Merced Irrigation District. These projects are being financed under partnership agreements by which the company will purchase the power produced by the agencies.

Scheduled for completion by PG&E in 1965 is the 330,000-kilowatt McCloud-Pit Project consisting of four dams, 10 miles of tunnels, three power plants and related works in Shasta County. In San Francisco, a 210,000-kilowatt steam-electric unit will be completed at the Potrero Power Plant.

Work will continue throughout the year on three other projects. One is the biggest single block of new electric generating capacity PG&E has ever undertaken, a 1,500,000 kilowatt addition to Moss Landing Power Plant on Monterey Bay. Two new power units of 750,000 kilowatts each will be the largest and most efficient on the company's system.

STEAM UNIT

Another project in progress is installation of a third geothermal steam unit, utilizing natural steam from the earth, at The Geysers Power Plant in Sonoma County. Its capacity of 27,500 kilowatts will be more than double the power of the first two units there. In Placer County, work will continue on the 45,000-kilowatt Drum Powerhouse No. 2, which is being built by PG&E in conjunction with Nevada Irrigation District's water project.

For further gas supplies PG&E, through affiliated companies, is seeking authorization to import from Canada an additional 200 million cubic feet a day through the existing Alberta-California gas line. The Alberta provincial government has given its approval, and the application is now before the Canadian government for action. Half the increase is for delivery beginning in 1966 and the remainder beginning in 1967.

With gas available from California fields, Canada, southwestern states and PG&E storage facilities, the company now is capable of a 24-hour peak day send-out approaching 3 billion cubic feet of gas, Gerdes said.

San Jose tops all California state colleges in enrollment

San Jose State College continues to lead in enrollment for the 16 California State Colleges with a total of 20,674 students this semester.

The largest total for the nation is the 151,366 students attending the California State Colleges collectively. The University of California ranks third in the nation-wide enrollment count behind the City University of New York.

This semester's enrollment increased within the 16 operating California State Colleges by nearly 16,000, or an 11.8 per cent rise, which is higher than the national rate of growth.

San Jose State and San Francisco State had the smallest percentage increases because of their enrollment restrictions. SJSC had 1,089 more students for a 5.6 per cent increase while San Francisco State added only 102 students for a 0.6 per cent growth.

Leading the percentage boom, Cal-State at Hayward added 1,700 students for a jump of 72 per cent. Two state colleges, San Fernando Valley State and Cal-State at Long Beach had increases of 2,300 students over 1963.

Stanislaus State at Turlock was the only state college to rigister a drop in enrollment last year. The smallest of the state colleges had 50 fewer students in its temporary quarters this fall.

Two more campuses at Palos Verdes and San Bernardino are scheduled to open in 1965 when the total state college enrollment is predicted at 165,000.

THAT FEMININE TOUCH

By Dolores Keywood

by Dolores Keywood

Attention: Jumping news for all ladies who want to be among the "chic at home". I'm talking about jump suits. For those who don't know, a jump suit is a one piece capri set and the idea originated with the paratroopers uniform.

Now they are being designed for women for convenience, comfort, freedom of movement and of course, femininity.

Because jump suits are one piece items, they are quite slenderizing. However they will not make you look like a size twelve if you are a size sixteen.

The fabrics vary, as well as the styles and colors. Most of them are made in a stretch helenca or wool jersey with bonded linings.

The dark colors, that "ever lovin' black" is probably your best bet. Expecially if you're looking for that slim sleek look. It's no secret, I'm sure, that black is slenderizing and knows no particular season. It may be dressed up with rhinestones, crystals or aurora borealis or dressed down with pearls or gold jewelry.

Spring colors are more exciting than ever and among those that will be most popular are banana, pumpkin, lime, light olive, melon, strawberry and royal purple.

Jump suits are easy to get in and out of and in many cases don't even have a zipper or a snap. They must be tried on to be appreciated and come an inch or so above the ankle. A belt or scarf may be tied around the waist but if your waist is thick be sure not to use a contrasting color.

If you're planning to entertain, consider dressing up a jump suit for a little different touch and it's a good idea to have something like this to slip into when unexpected company drops in.

If you'd like to know more about jump suits, like where to buy them, colors that are best for you and prices, please call me at 378-8180.

Altar Society plans luncheon

Villa Felice in Los Gatos will be the setting for St. Lucy's Altar Society's annual Birthday party on Thursday, January 7. Members will gather at 12 noon for the annual luncheon.

Mrs. J. D. Suoto, assisted by Mesdames John Serpa, John Trigueiro and Antone Ferro will be chairmen for the event. Entertainment will be provided by Mrs. Alfred Wlodyka at the piano and Mrs. John Kay, vocal selections.

Guest speaker will be Miss Adele Bihn of San Jose who spent a summer in Turkey living with a native family. She was one of the young Americans chosen by Experiments in International Living who were sent to various nations.

Gloria Carpenter weds Charles Dougherty, Jr

An evening ceremony at the Christian Church of Los Gatos united Gloria Carpenter and Charles Dougherty Jr. in marriage. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Carpenter of 121 So. Hunt Way, Campbell, and her bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dougherty Sr. of Yuba City.

For her wedding day the bride was attired in a gown of white silk organza over taffeta, trimmed at the neckline and down the front with appliqued flowers. The skirt ended in a chapel train. She carried a white Bible topped by an orchid and a cascade of carnations.

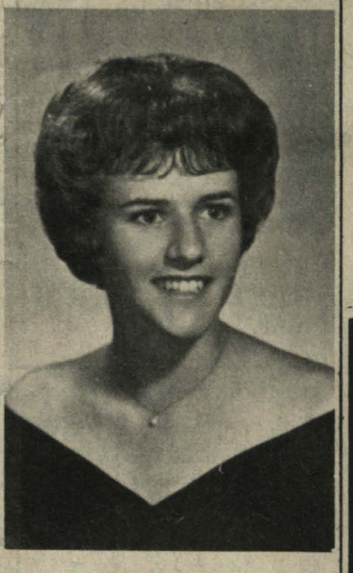
Miss Jackie Allen was the maid of honor and Peggy Dougherty, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. They were dressed in powder blue satin floor length gowns and carried bouquets of white carnations.

Ervin Olen of Yuba City served as best man and Hugh Morrison, Dave Chinn and Dick Dougherty were the ushers. Miss Frances Lindamood, accompanied by her mother at the organ, was the vocalist.

Following the nuptials a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Serving were Mesdames Carl Reinhart, Carnie Bradshaw, Lawrence Mitchell and Charles Gaunt.

Gloria is an employee of the Pacific Telephone Company. She is a graduate of Campbell High School, class of 1964.

Charles is attending San Jose State College and working for the San Jose Recreation Department. The newlyweds are residing in Santa Clara.



BRIDE--Miss Gloria Carpenter of Campbell became the bride of Charles Dougherty Jr. of Yuba City in December.

150 enjoy Grange Christmas program

Approximately 150 members and guests enjoyed the annual Christmas program sponsored by the Orchard City Grange on December 22. Strains of "Winter Wonderland" and "Silver Bells" were heard in the Grange Hall as sung by the Orchard City Grange Choraliers and musical selections were presented by Sherri, Cloi and Barbara Richardson. Others who added to the entertainment were Jack Tyson, Jr. who sang "Let There Be Peace" and "The Story of Christmas" was presented by Mrs. Myrtle Giessell.

Santa Claus, impersonated by Dwight Sheffer, distributed Christmas stockings filled with candy, fruit and nuts. Retiring Master Adeen Dooley was presented a gift by the new Master, Al McCoy. Mrs. Dooley responded graciously with a speech of appreciation to all the officers who served during her term. Appreciation was also expressed to the Youth Grangers who distributed popcorn balls to the audience.

Mrs. Dwight Sheffer was chairman of the refreshment committee assisted by Marian Lander, Zelhia Rhea, Bessie Merrill. Charles Carter, Barbara Carter, Maye Walsh, and Janice Lund. Mr. and Mrs. Lee Glick were in charge of the stage decorations.

AT MIRAMAR

Airman Boyd R. Mulford, USN, son of Mrs. Dorothy Harris, of 741 Normandy Drive, Campbell, recently reported for duty with Fighter Squadron 11 based at the Naval Air Station, Miramar, California.

MARINE MECHANIC

Marine Private First Class David A. Ralstin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin A. Ralstin, of 35 Jeffers Way, Campbell, recently completed the automotive mechanics course at the Division Schools Center, First Marine Division.

The next meeting of the Grange will be January 12 beginning at 8 p.m.

Children of postal workers enjoy party

Children of employees of the Campbell Post Office were guests of honor at a delightful Christmas Party sponsored by the Ladies Auxiliary, Branch 2209 of the National Association of Letter Carriers, the Post Office Welfare Committee and the Campbell Branch 3988 of the NALC.

Approximately 100 youngsters attended the party held at the Orchard City Grange Hall. Santa Claus made an appearance and distributed stockings filled with goodies to each child. A Magician also entertained the children and there was a scramble to knock down the Mexican Pinata filled with toys and candies. Refreshments were served by the Ladies Auxiliary

Fred Waring brings band January 22

The 1965 Fred Waring Show, the newest musical creation of that master showman, Fred Waring, has been designed specifically within the framework of his unique entertainment philosophy, as his fans will see when the show takes over the stage of the San Jose Civic Auditorium for one performance only on Friday evening, January 22 at 8:30.

It is truly a Waring blend of old, new, nostalgic, exciting and "just plain fun" music. It is dispensed with warmth and wit in the manner that had made Fred Waring's presentations a highlight of the American concert scene for almost fifty years.

The Fred Waring Show of 1965 will feature all of the Pennsylvanians--familiar favorites and many talented new performers--in a wide range of melodic and merry-making activities. It runs the gamut from show tunes to old standards, to current pop hits to inspirational music.

Tickets are on sale at Wendell Watkins Box Office located in Sherman Clay, 89 South First Street, San Jose daily except Saturday and Sunday 10:30 to 5:30. Mail orders are accepted when accompanied by a stamped, self-addressed envelope and telephone orders are accepted at 293-6252.

Presenting the 1965 Fred Waring Show is the San Jose Music & Arts Foundation under the managing directorship of Wendell Watkins. The Foundation is a non-profit organization.

HAPPY NEW YEAR! Campbell residents celebrated the New Year in various ways. ..THE LEROY JOHNSONS of Almarida Drive entertained a score of friends with a buffet supper, dancing and a guitar player.. MR. AND MRS. JAMES MAMONE had a small party at their Villarita Drive home...BILL BROWN of Campbell Office Machines took his wife, Charleen, to see Johnny Mathis at the Circle Theater in San Carlos...Good party at the BRAVE BULL at Saratoga Lanes. One group included the CARL MATTISONS, THE HARRY LEE'S, DR. AND MRS. HERBERT BERQUIST, and MR. AND MRS. JAY WELSH.....THE CHARLES WILLISON'S attended a private party in Cupertino...

THE CAMPBELL HIGH SCHOOL BAND which was to march at the EAST-WEST game on New Year's Day decided to "play it smart" and watch the game from the bus. It would have been a shame to ruin those new uniforms in the rain and mud. Those hula dancers didn't have so much to lose!

INVITATIONS are extended to young men in the Campbell area between the ages of 21 and 35 to join the "up and coming" Campbell Jaycees. This new group meets at Miranda's on the first Wednesday of each month. JAMES PLUTH of Branham Lane is the president. The Jaycees just concluded a successful Christmas tree pick-up for Campbell residents. They have plans for a number of service and social events in 1965...

CAMPBELL'S only snowman was built last Saturday night from a truck load of snow hauled in from the mountains by a group of Campbell High School students under the "direction" of BILL RUSSELL AND LINDA PHILLIPS...

TWO MUSICAL GROUPS--a widely acclaimed 100 voice choir and an outstanding 65 piece symphony orchestra--will be presented during January in the West Valley College Auditorium. On January 21 the college will present the famed "Voices of Inspiration" from Sacramento. On January 29 a symphony orchestra, composed of members of the San Jose Local 153 American Federation of Musicians will appear in concert. Both events are free to the public. Tickets for the event may be picked up on a first-come-first-served basis, at the college switchboard, 51 E. Campbell Ave.
